

"Grant to us strength in weakness, joy in sorrow, calmness in conflict, patience when opposed or attacked, trustworthiness under temptation, love when we are hated, firmness and farsightedness when the climate prefers faddishness and drift.

We beg you, holy and merciful God, that we may be used by you to extend your kingdom widely, to bring many to know and love you truly."

D. A. Carson, Praying with Paul 203-04

"Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. WORSHIP is. Missions exists because worship doesn't."
John Piper

Mission Focus

Missionary focus of the Week

Northern Canada Evangelical Mission

This morning we welcome Jon & Evelyn Siebert who have worked with Northern Canada Evangelical Mission (NCEM) for 37 years, currently serving as supervisors of field missionaries. They are good friends with Derrick & Jean Hiscox who have also served with this ministry.

Today Jon will share a message from God's Word as well as photos of the work NCEM does across Canada. We are grateful to be able to have them with us, and hope that as a result of their update, we are better equipped to pray for the ministry in the weeks ahead.

Learning to Trust God: A Study of the Life of David

David is one of those Old Testament characters which we love to praise for his courage and faith, loyalty, and his title, "a man after God's own heart." The human side of David, reveals his sin; adultery, murder, the numbering of Israel, and at times his deception. This series will be full of life lessons on discipline and grace, as well as tackling a number of ethical dilemmas.
** for week 5 please read 2 Sam 6—10 ****

We should not be entertained by the sins for which Christ died.

Guarded Christian Living: A Strong Faith at the Right Time
1 and 2 Peter

The Apostle Peter told his readers to "be on your guard so that you are not carried away" (2 Pet 3:17). Next Sunday morning we will begin a new series entitled "Guarded Christian Living: A Strong Faith at the Right Time." Peter's two epistles have much to say about the responsibility of the true believer in living out his faith. Peter was a man who deepened his walk with Christ at a time when the culture was opposed to Christianity, not unlike the days in which we live. But just as this was God's appointed time for Peter, it is also God's appointed time for us. We look forward to discovering how the Lord will challenge us as believers to have a strong faith at the right time.
