

Lord, help me to know the deepness of my sin, that I might be quick to flee it.
 Give me a deeper trust, that I might lose sight of myself.
 Teach me to know You more, as my Master, Saviour, Lord, and King.
 Might I develop a deeper passion for prayer, that You would grip my heart.
 Let me live a life of holiness in speech, thought, and action.
 Lord, dive deep within my heart and fill me to overflowing with Yourself.

Missionary focus of the Week

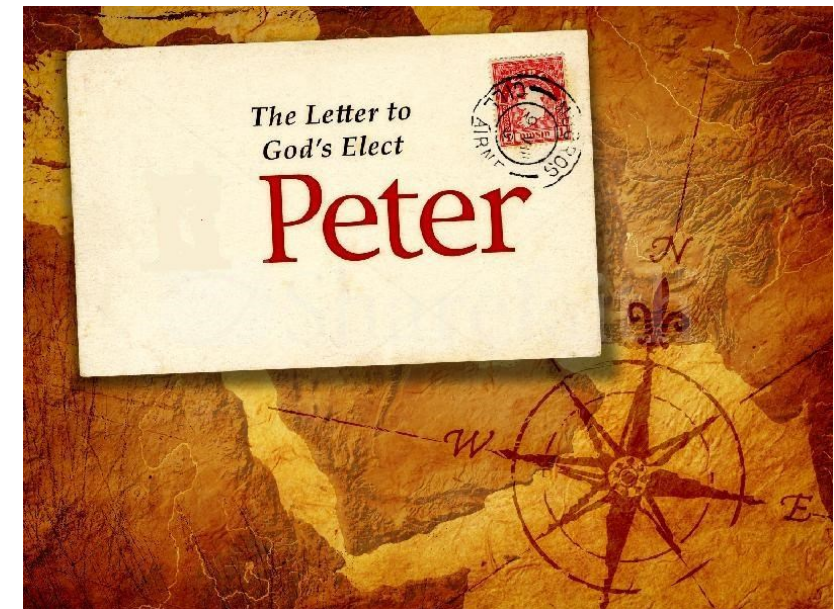

Mark & Gretchen Potma
 Czech Republic

Mark & Gretchen are back in full swing ministering to the various churches they support in the Czech Republic. In May, they travelled south and east from Prague, to minister in three different parts of the country, reaching the border regions of Slovakia, Poland and Austria.

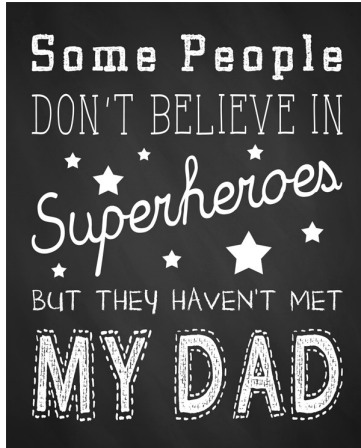

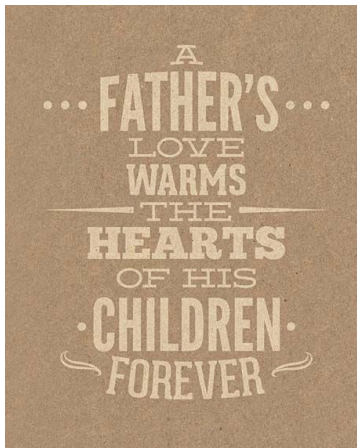

The Velka Lhota Church had opportunity to minister to Ukrainian refugees as they streamed across the border from Slovakia in February, turning their building into an emergency refugee transit centre and then long-term accommodations for Ukrainians. The church in Prague supported the work by collecting and sending funds, as well as freeing Mark & Gretchen up to be present at the Velka Lhota Church to help with teaching and ministering to the refugees

Let's keep Mark & Gretchen in our prayers – that the Lord would sustain them, strengthen them, and provide all they need to continue serving the Lord as they minister to many different small churches. Their latest prayer letter is posted on the missions' board.

Learning to Trust God: A Study of the Life of David

David is one of those Old Testament characters which we love to praise for his courage and faith, loyalty, and his title, "a man after God's own heart." The human side of David, reveals his sin; adultery, murder, the numbering of Israel, and at times his deception. This series will be full of life lessons on discipline and grace, as well as tackling a number of ethical dilemmas.
