

Lord, we pray that we would be authentic Christians

- understanding that we cannot fool God (Gal 6:7)
- keep us from desiring to gain recognition and the need to impress others

Lord, may we enjoy authentic Christian relationships

- thank You for the tremendous blessings we enjoy because of church-life
- may we invest greatly in the lives of our brothers and sisters
- thank You for those who have taught us the truths of Scripture over the years

Mission Focus

Missionary focus of the Week
Arthur & Dorcas Taylor ministering to the sailors on the Welland Canal

We are delighted to have Arthur & Dorcas with us this morning at Elim. Each month they send out a Prayer & Praise Update, which keeps us well informed on their ministry. Despite the dissolution of the Welland Canal Mission earlier this year, Arthur has found a way to retain access to the canal and to be able to continue serving the sailors in a variety of creative ways.

They are grateful that they have seen fruit and two people have given their lives to Christ. And they ask for prayer for those who have received booklets outlining the way of salvation; that they would respond to the message of salvation.

We look forward to hearing more from Arthur and Dorcas as they spend the day with us.

Life of David

David is one of those Old Testament characters which we love to praise for his courage and faith, loyalty, and his title, “a man after God’s own heart.” The human side of David, reveals his sin; adultery, murder, the numbering of Israel, and at times his deception. This series will be full of life lessons on discipline and grace, as well as tackling a number of ethical dilemmas.

Book Review

The Five Love Languages of Children by Gary Chapman  other five love languages titles also available **

Does your child speak a different language? Sometimes they waver for your attention, and other times they ignore you completely. Sometimes they are filled with gratitude and affection, and other times they seem totally indifferent. Attitude. Behavior. Development. Everything depends on the love relationship between you and your child. When children feel loved, they do their best. But how can you make sure your child feels loved? Each child, expresses and receives love through one of five different communication styles. And your love language may be totally different from that of your child. While you are doing all you can to show your child love, he may be hearing it as something completely opposite. Discover your child's primary language and learn what you can do to effectively convey unconditional feelings of respect, affection, and commitment that will resonate in your child's emotions and behavior.

Welland Canal

The Welland Canal Fallen Workers Memorial, unveiled in 2017, honours the 137 men who died while building the Welland Canal. An incredible feat of engineering, the canal links Lake Erie and Lake Ontario, and plays a crucial role in Canada's prosperity.
