Q&A with Christ: Why Have You Treated Us So?

Luke 2:41-52

When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."
Luke 2:48

prayer

- We praise You Lord that you have redeemed us from the slavery of sin we inherited through Adam.
- May we understand that as believers we are now slaves of Christ.
- Father, we are amazed that redemption was for us and results in Your glory.
- Might we live for the purpose of our redemption, to be obedient to You.
- Give us confidence that we would know the truth found in Your Word.

"Because the believer has been bought by Christ, he belongs to Christ and is Christ's slave."
 Paul Enns, The Moody Handbook of Theology 337

Mission Focus

Missionary focus of the Week

Mark & Gretchen Potma building up local churches in the Czech Republic

Mark & Gretchen faithfully send us a monthly prayer letter, which includes video links to interesting updates on their ministry.

The most recent letter is posted on the missions' board at the base of the stairs, as well on the chapel website at elimbiblechapel.com where you can directly link to their video updates.

Mark & Gretchen, along with two of their adult children, have been serving at English camps and faithfully continuing their ministry to local churches in Prague. We have had the privilege of supporting Mark & Gretchen for their entire missionary venture – a capable couple, committed to spreading the Gospel, by planting and supporting churches in the Czech Republic. They have seen good fruit!

We support the Potmas with a monthly gift of $250.
