- Lord, we pray that You would bless us with strong healthy marriages.
- May our husbands be loving to their wives (Eph 5:25) and understanding (1 Pet 3:7).
- May our wives follow the leadership of their husbands (1 Pet 3:1) and respect them (Eph 5:33).
- Give us the faith to see these responsibilities as unconditional obedience before Christ.

Mission Focus

Missionary focus of the Week Healing Hearts International

As we look back on the mother-daughter weekend that was held last weekend, let's pray that the message from God's Word that was delivered, will bear fruit in their lives, and in the lives of their families.

Using the Bible together with Healing Hearts materials, teaching was provided on developing Christlike relationships between mothers and daughters, focusing on walking together in faith, not fear, peace not anger, and grace not perfection.

Kim Quinn facilitated the teaching, and continues to volunteer with HH in her capacity as a certified counsellor, providing on-line support for women all over North America. Pray for Kim as she balances a busy life with this important

"Every team must have a captain, every home a head. God said that responsibility falls to the man. Therefore, the characteristic most desirable in a wife is that gentle and quiet spirit which responds with grace to the responsible decisions of her husband."

Book Review

What's the Difference? by John Piper

The topic of manhood and womanhood is still strongly debated today. For Christians, there is no doubt that the Bible must be the last word. But what does it teach about true manhood and womanhood? In what ways are men and women essentially the same? In what ways are they essentially different? And how do these differences affect our roles in the home, the church, and the wider society? John Piper positively and sensitively looks at these important questions for both men and women. His conclusions will inspire and encourage you to live out your unique differences in a fulfilling, godly way.
