Security Question Answer = church

- Lord, we pray that during testing, our faith will prove to be genuine.
- We praise You for walking with us during trials.
- May we be a people who are known for rejoicing in Your goodness.
- We pray that our lives would glorify You through suffering.

"... but if anyone suffers as a Christian, he is not to be put to shame, but is to glorify God in this name." (1 Pet 4:16)

Missionary focus of the Week

Healing Hearts Bible Study Options

Some of our teenage girls are currently participating in Healing Heart's "First Love" study, a unique three-part Bible study for young women. They are learning the big picture view of our need for salvation, how to love God with all their hearts as they address common sin struggles, as well as how to lay down their lives and live out God's love in their relationships.

Healing Hearts Bible studies have helped bring God's good news of hope to over 16,000 people worldwide who have been broken by sin. The studies reach life-long believers with unresolved issues, new believers seeking to reconcile their past with God's truth and unbelievers who are being introduced to the saving grace of the Gospel for the very first time. The study for men is "The Good Fight" and for women, "The Hem of His Garment". Check them out at healinghearts.org.

Kim Quinn is leading our young women in the "First Love" study and would be glad to give you more information about what other studies are available through Healing Hearts. Kim is a trained counsellor, and volunteers her time with Healing Hearts to walk alongside women who seek to work through practical application of biblical truths, and break free from the patterns of sin that so easily entangle

Suffering: Trusting a Faithful Creator - Part #2

1 Peter 4:12-19

To be a Christian is to realize that in your sin, you were separated from God's presence, and you deserved nothing but God's wrath.

Women's Fellowship Evening

Tomorrow Night – Monday, November 28 at 7:30pm

All women are invited to gather together tomorrow evening to sing, share what we've learned from the fall Bible studies, and enjoy each other's company over some snacks. If you are able to bring a dessert or an appetizer, please speak to Cheryl T. today.

Stay for Lunch—Sunday, Dec 11th

Same day as the Sunday School Concert

It is our hope the whole congregation will join us. Please invite you family and friends to join us for this festive day as we enjoy our children's presentation and a good meal in celebration of the season.

Our plan is to have ham and scalloped potatoes. We are purchasing the ham and buns and are asking you to help with the rest of the meal. There is a sign up sheet at the back table, please contribute as you can.

If you have any questions you can talk to Rose Oosterhof.

The Bible comes both to warn and to encourage and always to turn us again to the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's grace is not infinite. God is infinite, and God is gracious. We experience the grace of an infinite God, but grace is not infinite. God sets limits to His patience and forbearance. He warns us over and over again that someday the ax will fall and His judgment will be poured out.

Book Review

Total Truth by Nancy Pearcey

Does God belong in the public arena of politics, business, law, and education? Or is religion a private and personal matter only? Or are secularists right when they relegate religion to the strictly private realm of faith and feelings? Pearcey challenges 21st-century believers to overcome our cultural double-mindedness and learn to "think Christianly" about secular topics. She reveals the strategies of secularist gatekeepers who use this division to banish biblical principles from the cultural mainstream, stripping Christianity of its power to challenge and redeem the whole of culture. How can we overcome this divide? Unify our fragmented lives? Recover authentic spirituality? With compelling examples from the struggles of real people, Pearcey shows how to liberate Christianity from its cultural captivity. She walks readers through practical, hands-on steps for developing a full-orbed Christian worldview. Finally, she makes a passionate case that Christianity is not just religious truth but truth about total reality. It is total truth.
