Book Review

Although burnout is growing increasingly common among men in ministry, it doesn't have to be inevitable. In this book, men are offered gospel-centered hope for avoiding and recovering from burnout and setting a more sustainable pace.

This week we'll start into 1 Corinthians 15, and discussing chapters 27 & 28 in The Royal Route to Heaven. The morning group meets at the chapel in the Meeting Room and the evening group meets at Cheryl T's house, with option for Zoom available.

Lord, we praise You for the certainty of our faith.

- That there were so many eyewitness accounts of the resurrected Christ.
- That the resurrection changed the lives of so many people.
- That the details of Christ's life were recorded in the Old Testament.
- That You have given us the "more sure" Word.

So, may we be faithful in "listening to Christ" and "paying attention to Your Word."

Mission Focus for the Week

Aftermath of the Turkey & Syrian Earthquakes Our Suffering Brothers and Sisters

With the death toll nearing 40,000, relief efforts are focussing on helping the tens of thousands of survivors who have been left homeless amid the cold of winter.

MSC Canada is joining other relief efforts to send aid to Turkey directly through the missionaries they support. This allows money to go directly to urgent need, instead of being tied up in the often-corrupt government red tape.

Voice of the Martyrs reports that Christians in the affected area speak of the extensive suffering taking place due to the loss of loved ones and the tremendous need for surviving victims to receive blankets, food and other important necessities to sustain life.

Please pray for the people of Turkey & Syria who must now cope with the exponential loss and resulting suffering in the aftermath of this major earthquake. Pray that urgently needed aid will reach all those needing it and that political controversies will be set aside in order to help these victims.

And pray that our brothers and sisters in Christ will have opportunity to share our only Hope in life and death with those around them.

A dog barks when his master is attacked. I would be a coward if I saw that God's truth is attacked and yet would remain silent.
