- Lord, we praise You that You are the Reconciler to mankind.
 - We thank You for the gift of grace through the death of Your Son on the cross.
 - May we be faithful to "continue in the faith" (Col 1:23).
- "Grace, grace, God's grace ... Grace that will pardon and cleanse within Grace, grace, God's grace ... Grace that is greater than all my sin."

“A general once said to Charles Wesley, ‘I never forgive,’ To which Wesley responded, ‘Then I hope you never sin.’”

Living for Eternity: A Study in John's Gospel

Beginning next week, we will begin a new series in the Gospel of John. The theme of John's Gospel is eternal life, as he uses the term life forty-two times, for the ultimate joy for every true believer is eternal life with Christ. John does not mention the parables of Jesus, nor many of the significant events recorded in the other gospels. He does, however, focus on personal encounters with Christ, always around the theme of eternal life. So, we look forward to discovering a book with such depth doctrinally as we enjoy life forever with Jesus Christ. "And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent." (John 17:3).

Reconciliation always brings a springtime to the soul

"I can forgive but I cannot forget", is only another way of saying 'I will not forgive'. Forgiveness ought to be like a cancelled note – torn in two, and burned up, so that it can never be shown against one."
