

NEW SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE

OUR UNSEARCHABLE GOD

David wrote, "Great is Yahweh, and highly to be praised, And His greatness is unsearchable" (Ps 145:3 [LSB]). Though it is impossible to fully comprehend God, beginning on Sunday evenings, September 22, we will examine God's unsearchable greatness. Join us as we study the many descriptions of our great God taught in the Bible concerning His attributes and perfections, including His eternity, faithfulness, wrath, love, wisdom, and sovereignty.

Pray for Missionaries

For those both near and far sharing The Gospel

PRAYER

- Lord, help each of us to be a friend like Nathan and help us to find friends like Nathan.
- Help us to be quick to acknowledge our sin.
- Help us to confess our sin so it has no power over us.
- Thank you Lord that true joy is found in walking in right relationship with you. May You continue to cleanse us Lord.

Documentary on the Elliotts' Ministry and Captivity

Tonight at 6:30pm

Ken and Jocelyn Elliott have a faith that stands out, much like the heroes of the faith in Hebrews 11. Our connection to them comes through Chuck Manning who served alongside them at the hospital in Djibo, Burkina Faso, until they were kidnapped by Al Qaeda. Please join us tonight to watch a 38-minute documentary on the hospital complex in Djibo, the abduction and Dr Ken's subsequent seven-and-a-half-year captivity. It is heart wrenching, but you will be encouraged by their unwavering faith in God. We will spend some time afterwards praying for the Elliotts, the Mannings and other mission endeavours around the globe.
