PERSECUTION FOCUS

Our Brothers and Sisters in SYRIA

Much of the world – and the media – remain silent as Christians are being massacred in Syria. Entire villages have been stormed. Churches have been burned. Christians have been hunted down and slaughtered: men, women and children. They are massacred simply because of who they are and what they believe. Reports speak of mass killings, families executed in their homes and desperate Christians fleeing to find refuge wherever they can.

These are our brothers and sisters in Christ and they are crying out for help. Prayer is everything. While we grieve the lives lost, we pray for those who are still fleeing, still hiding and still searching for safety.

Corrie ten Boom (who survived Auschwitz) once said “There is no pit that God’s love is not deeper still.” Please don’t forget these people, and ask the Lord to provide help for them in their deepest time of need.

WOMEN’S SPRING BIBLE STUDY

The Three Epistles of John – “Light, Love and Logic”

using study materials by Sue LeBoutillier

Tuesday mornings 9:30am – 11:30am

Thursday evenings 7:00pm – 8:30pm

After finishing up in the life of Joseph this week, we are looking ahead to a new, seven-week study on the three epistles written by the Apostle John. John, the much-loved disciple of Jesus, who wrote one of the Gospels and the book of Revelation also penned these three letters to local churches to call them to doctrinal purity, while emphasizing the importance of living a life full of love.

Sign up on the sheet in the foyer, or speak directly to Cheryl T (Tuesday morning option) or Kim Q (Thursday evening option) so we can ensure you get a copy of the study booklet.

PRAYER

- Lord, we are stubborn people, but You are an amazing God.
- Give us the kind of hearts that would be moldable and usable by You.
- May we see ministry as Your work and the people as Your people.
- Make us a discerning people who know that Your wisdom is far above ours.
