

Our Most Precious Faith Complementarianism

We believe that God uniquely created male and female as complementary expressions of the image of God. Yet God has specifically given men, who are deemed to be qualified by the church, the task to serve as elders and deacons (1 Timothy 3:1-13; Titus 1:5-9). It is also the biblical role of husbands to lead their wives and children (Ephesians 5:22-33).

What about Paul's statement in Galatians 3:28?

What about a church or mission that has been blessed that does not hold to our position?

Are we better when God says "no" to everyone than only to "some"?

Why hold to such a divisive issue?

What should we teach the next generation?

Should we not be thankful for our unity on this issue?

PRAYER

- Lord, we express our gratitude for the blessing of marriage.
- We ask for Your strength to keep our marriages strong at Elim.
- Help us to remain faithful to Your principles and guidelines as husbands and wives.
- Give us the honour of reflecting the beauty of Christ and the church through our marriages.

2026 ELIM CHURCH BIBLE READ PAUL'S EPISTLES

We trust that you have been blessed by this year's church read of the Old Testament narrative. Over the next year, we plan to read through the letters of the Apostle Paul. Look for the reading plan soon and prepare to begin the New Year in Galatians 1.
