Mystery Read ~ Book Reviews

The Return of the Gods

Jonathan Chan

"The Return of the Gods" by Jonathan Cahn was very intriguing. I found it interesting reading about the ancient Israel's worship of the pagan gods and how they relate to our current societies state. I highly recommend this book to anyone interested in a deeper study of how the gods of ancient times have infiltrated our society from turning away from the true God. The end also offers hope in our God is greater and will have the victory in the end!

Young Witt & the Traitor's Tail

Phil Lollar & Dave Arnold

I really like the book because it is a mystery about a treasure. I also like the part where Jonny and Emmy meet. I like the beginning part where Jonny climbs the water tower and remembers the words his stepmother said because it was about God. I really liked the book because the book is cool. So that's why I recommend this book.

God's Fire for Elijah

Arch Books

I like the book because God won all the contests. The part Jesus rose from the dead, I like the pictures, and I like the people who believed in the true God.

MISSION FOCUS

Persecuted Christians in Iran from Voice of the Martyrs' Website

The Islamic Revolution of 1979, led by Ayatollah Khomeini, affected Iran more than any other event in modern history. It led to the establishment of the world's only country governed by an Islamic theocracy, now 47 years old. Today, many of those who committed their lives to Islamic rule are filled with despair. Yet, this disillusionment has opened new doors for the Gospel, which is sweeping across the nation via satellite TV and the Internet, as well as growing house church movements. Even so, the government continues its attempts to thwart its citizens from responding to Christ.

The Iranian government is among the most oppressive regimes in the world. It is illegal to leave Islam, and Christians face the constant threat of imprisonment and being falsely charged with "acting against national security." Known followers of Christ are often evicted from rental homes, routinely fired from their jobs, and then experience difficulties finding new employment. Many gather in secret fellowships and receive teaching through Christian media that's either been broadcast via satellite television or smuggled into the country. Several Christians are currently imprisoned, and many others under house arrest are awaiting sentencing.

With the current conflict and recent uprisings of Iran's citizens seeking freedom from the IRGC, consequences have become harsher for those deemed to be opposing the regime in any way. Pray for safety, and for peace and hope for our Christian brothers and sisters as they face these real dangers and harsh treatment.

In spite of this persecution, Iran has one of the fastest growing church movements in the world – an expanding underground church that is asking for your prayers and critical resources like Bibles and discipleship materials.

PRAYER

- Lord, we praise You that in every situation, You will always do what is right.
- We praise You for Your great love and Your goodness to mankind.
- We pray for our children that You might draw them to Christ.
- May we be faithful to the gospel and its urgency in the souls of men and women.
