Summer Camps

As we head into the final two weeks of summer, let's continue to pray for the summer camps who faithfully keep Jesus Christ central to their mission.

Many of you know Graeme and Jen Kirk who have been serving at Graphite Bible Camp near Bancroft this summer. They have reached out a few times to ask for urgent prayer as major obstacles presented that could have shut down the camp. Repeatedly, the Lord provided the needed resources, and they report that they have seen God at work in all areas of camp life. Graphite runs six weeks of day camps, at which they have seen a remarkable interest on the part of campers previously not exposed to the Gospel, who have eagerly listened to the message and responded in faith. Many children have requested Bibles and spent their free time talking about Jesus.

After camps are over and children return home, some who have put their faith in Christ are lacking a Christian community to disciple them. Let's be praying not only for salvation for the campers, but for the resources they will need to become mature disciples of Jesus Christ after they leave camp.

Graeme and Jen have asked for prayer for their family as they seek to remain steadfast in proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ during their last stretch at Graphite, and after the summer is over and they return to their ministry in Hamilton.

"How far do we go and still find the curse? You can't get beyond the boundaries
of the curse, because in the fall of man, the whole creation groans
together in travail."
